I checked Vigo County, Indiana, Marriage Licenses from 1818 to 1850, compiled by Mae Johns and A.R. Markle, but didn't find an Edward Barnett listed. Perhaps he was married before he came to Vigo County.

Cemetery Records of Vigo County, compiled by A.R. Markle, lists and Esther Elizabeth Barnett who died July 17, 1851, at the age of 29 years, 3 months, and 8 days.

For a marriage record after 1850, you should write to the Vigo County Clerk, Courthouse, Terre Haute, 47807. They have an index to the marriage records from 1840 to 1920 and provide copies of the licenses at a cost of 85¢.

I checked the two census records, but it is hard to tell if they are the same people. I think the Elizabeth who was 28 in 1850 is probably the same one who died in 1851. I notice that Edward, Elizabeth, and Alice Taylor, age 14, were all born in Ohio. Alice could be Elizabeth's sister. Edward must have been a Terre Haute marshal as the town makes up a large part of Harrison township.

The Edward Barnett who was in Terre Haute in 1860 was also born in Ohio and could be the same man. I suppose the "W.L." could be Winfield Barnett. Winfield should have been 14, not 16, in 1860, but errors in ages were common. Zachariah might have died and "M.F." could be a child of Edward and Martha. Edward's children would have been small when Elizabeth died so it is reasonable to assume he would marry again.

I made print-outs from the census so I could study the two years together and will just send them on to you rather than discard them.

I found Edward Barnett listed in the Report of the Superintendent of the City Cemetery (Woodlawn) of Terre Haute by H.D. Milns. Edward was buried August 17, 1864, age not given, disease unknown, lot number not given, and was a pauper. This is probably why there are no probate records for him. Of course this means there is no record to list the names of his children. Apparently, he didn't even own the saloon as there is no real estate value listed on the 1860 census. You might try checking the deed records anyway, just in case.

You might also try checking for his family in other census. There is a Mrs. Martha Barnett, Boarding at 6th south of Canal, in the 1871-72 city directory.

Dear Sir:

I hope you will be able to answer the following questions for me.

Do you have ^{no} have James & Joseph a marriage record for Edward Barnett ^{Ohio?} and Elizabeth ??? between the years 1840 and 1849?

Do you have a death record for Elizabeth Barnett between 1850 and 1860? ^{Cather Elizabeth D. 17 July 1851 age 29y 3m 8d buried Woodlawn cemetery}

Do you have a divorce record for Edward Barnett and Elizabeth Barnett between 1850 and 1860? ^{No}

Do you have a marriage record for Edward Barnett and Martha??? between 1850 and 1860? ^{no}

In the 1850 Vigo Co. Harrison Twp Edward Barnett with wife Elizabeth is a town marshal. What town would this be? ^{p 242 Census Zachariah 6 Winfield 4}

In the 1860 5th Ward Terre Haute census Edward Barnett with wife Martha is a saloon keeper.

I would like to know if this is the same Edward Barnett but with different wives.

In 1862 Edward Barnett with wife Martha is still living. I have heard that he died about 1866; however, the county clerk has no record of probate. Do you have a record of Edward Barnett's death about that time or can you suggest how I might find it?

^{Edward's name in cemetery record but no dates}

I will appreciate your help.

Sincerely,

Ruth Dietrich
